La Navidad: Una Época de Magia, Unión y Esperanza

La Navidad es mucho más que una festividad; es un momento especial del año que reúne a personas de todas las edades, culturas y creencias en torno al espíritu de amor, unión y generosidad. Celebrada el 25 de diciembre, su origen se remonta al nacimiento de Jesús en Belén, pero con el paso del tiempo ha trascendido lo religioso para convertirse en un símbolo universal de paz y esperanza.

Durante esta época, las calles se iluminan con luces centelleantes, los hogares se llenan de decoraciones y se respira un ambiente de alegría y expectativa. Una de las tradiciones más representativas es la colocación del árbol de Navidad, adornado con esferas, estrellas y guirnaldas que reflejan el deseo de prosperidad y unión. En muchos lugares, también se instalan nacimientos o belenes, recreaciones del pesebre donde nació Jesús, que se convierten en un punto central de las celebraciones familiares.

La Navidad es, además, un tiempo de compartir. Las reuniones familiares y las cenas especiales son momentos esperados por todos. En las mesas se sirven platillos típicos que varían según la región, pero el sentido común es el de disfrutar en compañía de seres queridos. El intercambio de regalos, una tradición que se inspira en los obsequios que los Reyes Magos llevaron al niño Jesús, se ha convertido en una forma de expresar cariño y gratitud.

Más allá de las festividades, la Navidad tiene un profundo significado emocional y social. Es un tiempo para reflexionar sobre lo vivido durante el año, para fortalecer los lazos con quienes nos rodean y para renovar nuestros propósitos con esperanza. También es una época donde el espíritu de generosidad se manifiesta, y muchas personas aprovechan para realizar actos solidarios, llevando alegría y apoyo a los más necesitados.

La magia de la Navidad no reside solo en las luces o los regalos, sino en su capacidad de inspirar emociones positivas. Ya sea en un paisaje nevado, en un cálido ambiente tropical o en una celebración sencilla en casa, lo que realmente importa es el tiempo compartido con los seres queridos. Esta festividad nos recuerda que, a pesar de las diferencias, el amor, la unión y la esperanza son valores universales que siempre vale la pena celebrar.

En esta época, todos podemos detenernos por un momento, mirar a nuestro alrededor y sentir gratitud por lo que tenemos. Así, la Navidad se convierte en un recordatorio de que los mejores regalos no son materiales, sino aquellos momentos y emociones que atesoramos para siempre.

Vuelos nacionales: El Real ID será obligatorio a partir de mayo

El Departamento de Seguridad Nacional de Estados Unidos (DHS) implementó una nueva medida, obligatoria, para las personas que tengan vuelos nacionales. El Real ID será necesario al momento de abordar un avión a cualquier destino dentro del país.

El DHS tiene como objetivo mejorar la seguridad en los aeropuertos nacionales y en otras instalaciones federales, exigiendo identificaciones más confiables para evitar cualquier documentación falsa. Este nuevo método entrará en rigor a partir del próximo 7 de mayo de 2025.

De acuerdo a varios reportes, el Real ID será esencial para abordar aviones dentro del país, por lo que quienes no cuenten con este requisito, o un pasaporte vigente, no podrán abordar sus vuelos. Ante ello, es importante revisar y actualizar tus documentos con anticipación para evitar contratiempos.

¿QUÉ ES EL REAL ID?

Como propósito de unificar los estándares de seguridad en las licencias de conducir, en el 2005 se implementó el Real ID como una normativa federal y su principal objetivo es reforzar los controles de identidad y prevenir el uso de documentos falsificados, mejorando así la seguridad en el país.

Su implementación se creó luego de trágicos atentados del 11 de septiembre de 2001 y en la actualidad no solo será necesario para viajar en vuelos comerciales dentro del país, sino también para ingresar a instalaciones federales y acceder a ciertas áreas restringidas. No obstante, no será la única identificación aceptada, ya que también podrán usar pasaportes vigentes, tarjetas de identificación militar y algunas credenciales federales para los vuelos.

¿CÓMO OBTENER UNA LICENCIA REAL ID?

El Real ID puede ser obtenido por cualquier ciudadano. Estos deberán dirigirse a la oficina local de vehículos motorizados (DMV) y presentar una serie de documentos que verifiquen su identidad y residencia. Los requisitos son los siguientes:

- Un comprobante de identidad, como un pasaporte vigente o un acta de nacimiento.
- Un comprobante del número de Seguro Social.
- Dos documentos que verifiquen el domicilio del solicitante, como facturas de servicios públicos o estados de cuenta bancarios.

Los interesados en sacar su Real ID deberán consultar los requisitos específicos de su estado, pues estos pueden variar en algunas ocasiones.

¿CUÁL ES EL COSTO PARA OBTENER UNA REAL ID?

Para lograr obtener el Real ID no siempre es el mismo costo, ya que esto dependerá del estado en el que se solicite, por lo que los precios generalmente oscilan entre los $20 y $60 dólares. Es recomendable que los interesados verifiquen el costo exacto en su oficina local de vehículos motorizados.

SIN EL REAL ID, ¿PODRÁN ABORDAR VUELOS NACIONALES?

Según la Administración de Seguridad en el Transporte de Estados Unidos (TSA) aquella persona que no presente una identificación compatible con el Real ID u otra forma aceptada, no podrán abordar vuelos nacionales, por lo que enfatiza en la importancia de actualizar los documentos con antelación para evitar inconvenientes. El tiempo límite para cumplir con esta normativa será el 7 de mayo de 2025.

Trump pone fecha para firmar el decreto para aumentar aranceles a México

El presidente electo de Estados Unidos, Donald Trump, advirtió que apenas asuma el cargo firmará un decreto para imponer aranceles a México, Canadá y China, como estrategia para combatir la inmigración ilegal y el tráfico de drogas.

En su plataforma de redes sociales Truth Social, el republicano escribió que "el 20 de enero, como uno de mis muchos primeros decretos, firmaré todos los documentos necesarios para cobrar a México y Canadá un arancel del 25% sobre todos los productos que ingresen a Estados Unidos".

Dijo que los nuevos aranceles permanecerían en vigor "hasta detener esta invasión de drogas, en particular del fentanilo, y de todos los extranjeros ilegales a nuestro país".

"Tanto México como Canadá tienen el derecho y el poder absolutos para resolver fácilmente este problema que lleva tanto tiempo latente", aseguró.

"Exigimos que utilicen este poder y hasta que lo hagan ¡es hora de que paguen un precio muy alto!", enfatizó.

También amenazó con cobrar a China un arancel adicional del 10%, "por encima de cualquier arancel adicional", sobre todos los productos que entren a Estados Unidos por preocupaciones sobre las drogas, incluido el fentanilo.

Trump añadió que ha mantenido muchas conversaciones con China sobre la ingente cantidad de droga, particularmente fentanilo, que se envía a Estados Unidos.

"Pero ha sido en vano, representantes de China me dijeron que instituirían su pena máxima, la de muerte, para cualquier narcotraficante sorprendido haciendo eso, pero desafortunadamente nunca lo cumplieron y las drogas están llegando a nuestro país, principalmente a través de México, en niveles nunca antes vistos", aseguró.

No está claro si Trump realmente cumplirá las amenazas o si las está utilizando como táctica de negociación antes de asumir el cargo en el nuevo año.

¿POR QUÉ DECIMOS?...

"Más vale un tamal en la mesa que un pavo volando"

La frase "Más vale un tamal en la mesa que un pavo volando" es una adaptación humorística del refrán tradicional "Más vale pájaro en mano que cien volando", adaptada al contexto de las festividades navideñas en México. A continuación, te explico su origen, significado y por qué se dice.

ORIGEN

El refrán original, "Más vale pájaro en mano que cien volando", tiene raíces en la literatura española y es uno de los dichos más antiguos del idioma español. Su origen se remonta al siglo XV y se encuentra en escritos como La Celestina de Fernando de Rojas. El refrán enfatiza la idea de valorar lo que se tiene asegurado en lugar de arriesgarse por algo incierto o inalcanzable.

La versión mexicana sustituye "pájaro" por "tamal" y "cien volando" por "un pavo volando", jugando con elementos culturales y gastronómicos típicos de las celebraciones navideñas en México. Esto refleja la importancia de la comida tradicional mexicana, como los tamales, que son más accesibles y comunes que el pavo, considerado más sofisticado o caro.

POR QUÉ SE DICE

Se utiliza para resaltar el valor de lo que ya se tiene (en este caso, el tamal en la mesa) frente a lo que se desea o se idealiza (el pavo, que puede ser más caro o complicado de conseguir). También es un guiño humorístico que celebra la tradición y la sencillez de los tamales, un platillo profundamente arraigado en la cultura mexicana.

EJEMPLO DE USO

1. En una conversación familiar:

"Este año no alcanzó para pavo, pero hicimos tamales."

"Pues más vale un tamal en la mesa que un pavo volando."

2. Entre amigos bromeando sobre la cena navideña:

"Yo quería pavo relleno, pero mi mamá hizo tamales otra vez."

"No te quejes, más vale tamal en la mesa que pavo volando."

Crece tristeza y soledad en el mundo, revela estudio de la OCDE

Los sentimientos de tristeza y soledad aumentaron, o se mantienen estancados, en la mayor parte de los países de la OCDE, una tendencia que se atribuye en gran parte al impacto de los confinamientos de la crisis del Covid-19 (2019-2022). Así lo indica el informe publicado por la Organización para la Cooperación y el Desarrollo Económico (OCDE) titulado "¿Cómo va la vida? 2024?" y que indaga en indicadores de bienestar que no son meramente económicos como el sentimiento de soledad, el número y calidad de interacciones sociales y la ayuda de allegados.

La OCDE, un organismo multilateral con sede en París que agrupa a varias de las principales economías del mundo, detalló que 10 de los 38 países del club registraron un aumento de personas que se declararon tristes entre 2019 y 2023, mientras que solo en cinco hubo mejoras. Los 23 restantes arrojaron un estancamiento. "El porcentaje de personas que declararon un sentimiento de tristeza creció en los países de la OCDE, sobre todo en el corto plazo", indican los autores del estudio, que sitúa en un 21% la proporción de personas de los países de la OCDE que dicen haber sentido "mucho tristeza" el día anterior de participar en la encuesta.

Israel, con un aumento de algo más de 10 puntos porcentuales, y el Reino Unido, con cerca de 7, figuran como las naciones con un deterioro más agudo entre 2019 y 2023. Chile consta entre los cuatro países con mejoras, con una caída del sentimiento de tristeza de algo más de 3 puntos porcentuales.

España, por su parte, estuvo estable en ese periodo con un 25% de sus habitantes reconociendo que se sienten tristes, el séptimo porcentaje más elevado entre los 38 países. El informe constata que "la prevalencia del sentimiento de tristeza aumentó de ritmo durante la pandemia del Covid".

Esta crisis sanitaria y social que implicó rígidas restricciones a la movilidad y confinamientos en buena parte de los países también contribuyó a agravar el sentimiento de soledad, de acuerdo con el estudio, que analiza a 23 de los 38 países de la OCDE.

"Estimaciones demuestran que la prevalencia de la soledad pasó, en los países de la OCDE con datos disponibles, de un poco menos del 4% al 14% en 2023", señala el documento, que asevera que las medidas de distanciamiento social de la covid "afectaron a todos los grupos de edad", no solo a los de mayor edad.

Entre 2019 y 2023, el sentimiento de preocupación también creció o se estancó en buena parte de los países del conocido como "club de las naciones ricas".

Entre las 12 en las que empeoró, se encuentra España, con un aumento de algo más de 3 puntos porcentuales, lo que coloca al país ibérico con cerca del 50% de su población con sentimiento de preocupación, solo superados por los portugueses (más del 55%).

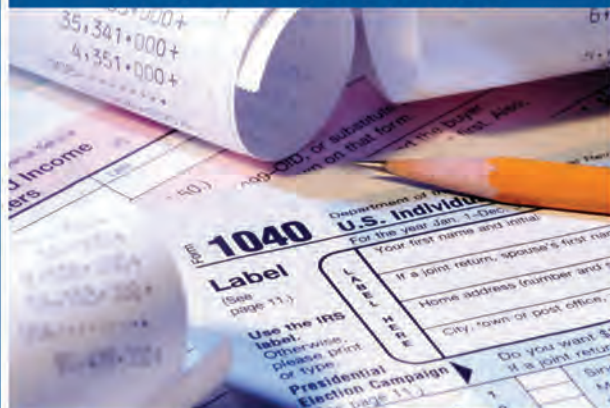

Respecto al indicador que mide la satisfacción media con la vida, que va de una escala del 0 al 10, se ha mantenido en un 7.4 en el conjunto de la OCDE en 2023, lo que demuestra "un estancamiento" de ese índice desde la crisis del Covid.

What to stream: Sabrina Carpenter holiday special, 'Beetlejuice Beetlejuice' and Rosé goes solo

Dec 2, 2024 (AP): Sabrina Carpenter hosting a holiday variety music special on Netflix and Keira Knightley and Ben Whishaw playing a spy and an assassin in the TV series "Black Doves" are some of the new television, films, music and games headed to a device near you.

Also among the streaming offerings worth your time as selected by The Associated Press' entertainment journalists: K-pop star Rosé has her first solo full-length album, Tim Burton's "Beetlejuice Beetlejuice" enjoys another afterlife odyssey and BLACKPINK's Rosé has her first solo full-length album.

NEW MOVIES TO STREAM DEC. 2-8

— Thirty-six years after the original, the Deetz family returns to Winter River in Tim Burton's "Beetlejuice Beetlejuice" (streaming Saturday, Dec. 7 on Max). There, Lydia (Winona Ryder), still haunted by Beetlejuice (Michael Keaton), is forced into another afterlife odyssey when her teenage daughter (Jenna Ortega) discovers a portal. In her review, AP's Jocelyn Noveck called it "a joyously rendered sequel that sometimes makes sense, and sometimes doesn't, but just keeps rollicking."

— A lowkey reunion of "Love Actually" writer-director Richard Curtis and one of that film's stars, Bill Nighy, is part of the new Netflix animated movie "That Christmas" (streaming Wednesday). The film was co-written by Curtis (it's based on his series of Christmas books) and features Nighy as the voice of Lighthouse Bill, one of the Wellington-on-Sea townspeople grappling with a winter blizzard. The storm poses challenges even for Santa, voiced by Brian Cox.

— Scarlett Johansson and Channing Tatum star in the space race rom-com "Fly Me to the Moon," about a NASA launch director (Tatum) and a Madison Avenue marketing executive tasked with selling the mission to the moon. The film, which debuted in theaters in July, hits Apple TV+ on Wednesday. In her review, AP Film Writer Lindsey Bahr praised it as "lighthearted and breezy with a pleasing screwball energy, giving Johansson the opportunity to use the full wattage of her movie star power."

— AP Film Writer Jake Coyle

NEW MUSIC TO STREAM DEC. 2-8

— Does espresso go with eggnog? Find out when Sabrina Carpenter hosts a holiday variety music special that streams on Netflix starting Friday, Dec. 6. "It's an hour of literal nonsense," Sabrina told Time magazine about the special. "If people are expecting boring, me singing by a tree, it's not that. It's so fun, so chaotic. There are so many guests that I'm excited about." Those guests include Chappell Roan, Tyla, Shania Twain, Kali Uchis, Quinta Brunson, Cara Delevingne, Kyle Mooney, Nico Hiraga, Megan Stalter, Sean Astin, Owen Thiele and Jillian Bell.

— Lauren Mayberry, vocalist and percussionist from the Scottish pop band Chvrches, makes her solo debut with "Vicious Creature." The 12 tracks veer from the coffee-house folk of "Anywhere But Dancing" to the punky "Punch Drunk," the dance-pop of "Change Shapes" and stuttering glam of "Sorry, Etc." "It's a mission statement of all things that you like," she tells us in an interview.

— Mayberry isn't the only woman setting out alone — BLACKPINK's Rosé has her first solo full-length album, titled "rosie," scheduled for release on Friday, Dec. 6. She kicked it off with "APT.," her collaborative with pop star Bruno Mars. The catchy pop-punk track, inspired by a popular Korean drinking game, known as the "apartment game." It has spent weeks atop the Billboard Global 200 chart. On Instagram, she previewed the album by saying

"I have poured my blood and tears into this album. I cannot wait for you to listen to this little journal of mine."

— AP Entertainment Writer Mark Kennedy

NEW SHOWS TO STREAM DEC. 2-8

— In their new Netflix series "Black Doves," Keira Knightley and Ben Whishaw play old friends who also happen to be a spy and an assassin, that team up to solve a murder (and get revenge) at Christmas. Knightley joked to The Associated Press that the show falls in the "Die Hard" category of holiday entertainment. "It's like, I've spent too much time with my family. I hate them all. I need to watch something blow up!" "Black Doves" debuts Thursday on the streamer.

— Margo Martindale stars in the new Prime Video series "The Sticky," as a down-on-her-luck woman on the brink of financial ruin who finds herself in a crime ring stealing, of all things, millions of dollars' worth of maple syrup. It's inspired by a true story. The dark comedy also stars a delightful Chris Diamantopoulos and Guillaume Cyr. Jamie Lee Curtis is an executive producer and also makes an appearance. It premieres Friday, Dec. 6.

— Alicia Rancillo

NEW VIDEO GAMES TO PLAY

— Multiplayer free-for-alls like Overwatch and Apex Legends remain popular online, but it's been years since a new release has made an impact. Chinese-owned NetEase Games is hoping to shake up the genre by adding superheroes and villains to the formula with Marvel Rivals. The core competition is a battle between two teams of six heroes each. The initial lineup includes marquee names like Spider-Man, Black Panther and Captain America as well as a few cult favorites like Luna Snow and Jeff the Land Shark. Some characters — say Thor, Loki and Hela — can join forces to unleash all sorts of havoc. It's all free-to-play, and the mayhem begins Friday, Dec. 6, on PlayStation 5, Xbox X/S and PC.

Lorain County JVS partners with local libraries to bring Adult Diploma Program information to the community

The Lorain County JVS Adult Career Center, in collaboration with the Lorain Public Library System and the Elyria Public Library System, is excited to offer Adult Diploma Program (ADP) information sessions at local library locations on December 18, 2024. These sessions provide an opportunity for residents to learn about earning their state-issued high school diploma while gaining valuable industry credentials in some of the state's most in-demand career fields.

The Adult Diploma Program is designed for individuals aged 18 and older, who did not earn either a high school diploma or a GED. This program combines job training with a supportive environment to help participants unlock new career possibilities.

As part of the program, participants can choose from several Career Development Programs, including:

- Phlebotomy Technician: A comprehensive course combining classroom instruction and clinical experience to prepare students for careers in hospitals, clinics, and labs. Students will also be eligible to take the National Healthcare Association (NHA) national exam upon completion.

- State Tested Nurse

- Aide (STNA): Focused on entry-level healthcare roles, this program emphasizes hands-on training in communication, safety, personal care, and nursing basics. Graduates qualify to take the Ohio STNA exam.

- Automotive Service Technician: Students learn diagnostic and repair skills across various systems, preparing for Automotive Service Excellence (ASE) certification and employment opportunities in the auto repair field.

- Welding/Fabrication: This program introduces participants to electric arc welding techniques, progressing through advanced skills like TIG and MIG welding. Training culminates in American Welding Society (AWS) qualification tests, equipping students for the high-demand field of welding.

Library Information Sessions

Lorain County JVS is proud to partner with the Lorain Public Library System and the Elyria Public Library System to host ADP information sessions on December 18. These sessions will offer detailed insights into the program and the available career pathways.

To register for an in-person information session at one of these library locations, visit <https://forms.office.com/r/fr3HsnG0Fn> or contact us at 440.774.1051, Ext. 22254. The sessions will take place at the Main Library in Lorain, 351 W. Sixth Street, at 1 p.m. and at the Elyria Public Library at 3 p.m.

Additional Sessions at Lorain County JVS

ADP information sessions are also held at the Lorain County JVS Adult Career Center every other Wednesday at noon. To register for the next in-person session at Lorain County JVS, contact us at 440.774.1051, Ext. 22254 or email accinfo@lcjvs.net.

Beware of fake charity scams this Holiday Season

COLUMBUS, Ohio: During this season of giving, the Ohio Department of Commerce's Division of Financial Institutions (DFI) urges Ohioans to be cautious of holiday scams, particularly those involving fraudulent charitable organizations.

Fraudsters often use this time of year to exploit the trust and generosity of well-intentioned individuals. Last year alone, Americans donated $374 billion to charities; however, according to a survey conducted by AARP regarding holiday donations, 6 in 10 Americans surveyed said they don't always research an organization before contributing. In 2023, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) reported that consumers lost more than $10 billion to fraud in general, which marked an all-time high.

"It is unfortunate that during a season meant for good will and generosity, there are those who seek to take advantage of unsuspecting individuals," said DFI Superintendent Kevin Allard. "We want to remind everyone to make sure they conduct due diligence before making a financial gift to ensure their contributions support legitimate causes and they don't line the pockets of criminals."

Holiday scams come in various forms, including unsolicited calls, texts, fake advertisements, and emails. Fake charity scams are prevalent, as scammers create deceptive phone calls and websites to steal money and personal information from unsuspecting individuals. Scammers often attempt to closely imitate legitimate charities' phone numbers and contact information, adding another layer of deception.

Ohioans should be particularly wary of unsolicited calls and text messages. The FTC has previously warned of fake shipping notifications via email and text messages. When a link contained in those messages is clicked, malware can be installed on your device, allowing scammers to potentially steal your data or gain unauthorized access to systems or information. Remember, the U.S. Postal Service does not send unsolicited messages or emails containing links.

Tips to Avoid Fake Charity Scams

1. Verify First: Ask for the charity's full name, website, and mailing address, then use the Tax-Exempt Organization Search (TEOS) tool on IRS.gov to verify the legitimacy of a charity. You also can check eligibility for tax-deductible contributions and access information about an organization's tax-exempt status and filings. You may also consider using resources like the BBB's Wise Giving Alliance or Charity Watch.

2. Avoid Pressure: Legitimate charities will accept donations at any time and at any amount. Don't rush into giving.

3. Protect Personal Information: Treat personal information like cash; don't give it freely.

4. Be Cautious of Payment Methods: Avoid making donations via cash, gift cards, via shipping notifications via email and text messages. Services such as Venmo, or cryptocurrency. By making donations via credit cards, Ohioans can stay better protected from financial concerns.

5. Verify Text Donations: Before making a donation via text, be sure to confirm the charity's number on its website to ensure it is a valid number.

6. Crowdfunding Caution: Exercise caution when donating to individuals on crowdfunding sites. If you do, make sure it's someone you personally know and trust.

7. Act Fast if You Become a Victim: If you encounter a suspicious charity, you are encouraged to consult the FBI's resources on Charity and Disaster Fraud.

About the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions

The Division of Financial Institutions is part of the Ohio Department of Commerce. The department is Ohio's chief regulatory agency, focused on promoting prosperity and protecting what matters most to Ohioans. We ensure businesses follow the laws that help them create jobs and keep Ohioans safe.

Catedral de Notre Dame revela su interior renovado 5 años después de incendio devastador

Por THOMAS ADAMSON y JOHN LEICESTER Associated Press

PARÍS, Nov 29, 2024 (AP) — Después de más de cinco años de frenéticos trabajos de reconstrucción, la Catedral de Notre Dame mostró su nuevo aspecto al mundo el viernes, con techos altos reconstruidos y una cantería cremosa como nueva que borra los sombríos recuerdos de su devastador incendio en 2019.

Las imágenes transmitidas en vivo de una visita al sitio del presidente francés Emmanuel Macron mostraron el interior de la icónica catedral como podrían haberlo experimentado los fieles en la época medieval, sus amplios y abiertos espacios llenos de luz brillante en un día de invierno fresco y soleado que iluminaba los vibrantes colores de los vitrales.

Afuera, el monumento sigue siendo un sitio de construcción, con andamios y grúas. Pero el interior renovado —mostrado en todo su esplendor el viernes por primera vez antes que el público pueda volver el 8 de diciembre— resultó ser impresionante.

Los canteros arreglaron los techos arrasados. Ya no están los enormes agujeros que el incendio abrió en los techos abovedados, dejando montones de escombros carbonizados. Nueva cantería ha sido cuidadosamente ensamblada para reparar y llenar las heridas que habían dejado el interior de la catedral expuesto a los elementos. Delicados ángeles dorados observan desde el centro de uno de los techos reconstruidos, elevándose nuevamente sobre el transepto.

Las paredes de piedra caliza de color crema brillante de la catedral parecen nuevas, limpias no sólo del polvo del incendio sino también de la suciedad que se había acumulado durante los siglos.

La catedral atraía a millones de fieles y visitantes anualmente antes del incendio del 15 de abril de 2019, que obligó a cerrarla y convirtió el monumento en el corazón de París en una zona prohibida excepto para artesanos, arquitectos y otros movilizados para la reconstrucción.

Macron entró a través de las gigantescas y detalladamente talladas puertas frontales de la catedral y miró hacia los techos con asombro. Estuvo acompañado por su esposa, Brigitte, el arzobispo de París y otros.

Se desplegaron técnicas nuevas y antiguas.

Potentes aspiradoras se utilizaron primero para eliminar el polvo tóxico liberado cuando el incendio derriñó los techos de plomo de la catedral.

Luego se rociaron finas capas de látex sobre las superficies y se retiraron unos días después, llevándose la suciedad con ellas. También se utilizaron geles de limpieza en algunas paredes que habían sido pintadas, eliminando muchos años de suciedad acumulada y revelando sus colores brillantes una vez más.

“Da la sensación de que se construyó ayer, como si acabara de nacer, a pesar de que Notre Dame es muy antigua”, dijo el cantero Adrien Willeme, que trabajó en la reconstrucción. “Como se ha restaurado y limpiado con tanto cuidado, tiene un aspecto realmente extraordinario”.

También se utilizaron geles limpiadores en algunas paredes que habían sido pintadas, eliminando muchos años de suciedad acumulada y revelando de nuevo sus brillantes colores.

Los carpinteros trabajaron a mano como sus homólogos medievales mientras tallaban vigas gigantes de roble para reconstruir el techo y la aguja que colapsaron como una lanza llameante en el infierno. Las vigas muestran las marcas del trabajo de los carpinteros, con abolladuras hechas en la madera por sus hachas de mano.

Se talaron unos 2.000 árboles de roble para reconstruir estructuras de techos tan densas e intrincadas que se les apoda “el bosque”.

Es un adelanto antes de la reapertura. La visita de Macron dio inicio a una serie de eventos que marcan la reapertura de la obra maestra gótica del siglo XII. Al final de su recorrido, el presidente se dirigió a cientos de trabajadores reunidos en el interior de la catedral y les agradeció su labor en lo que denominó la “obra del siglo”.

“La conmovión de la reapertura será, quiero creerlo, tan fuerte como la del incendio. Pero será un shock de esperanza”, dijo. “El infierno de Notre Dame fue una herida para la nación. Y ustedes fueron su remedio”.

Macron regresará el 7 de diciembre para pronunciar un discurso y asistir a la consagración del nuevo altar durante una misa solemne al día siguiente.

La videoperiodista de The Associated Press Marine Lesprit contribuyó a este despacho.

Support local food banks with donated venison this Hunting Season

COLUMBUS, Ohio: The Ohio Department of Natural Resources (ODNR) Division of Wildlife is again partnering with Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry (FHFH) to support local food banks with donated venison. With a $30,000 grant from the Division of Wildlife, FHFH and participating processors donate harvested white-tailed deer to charitable organizations throughout Ohio.

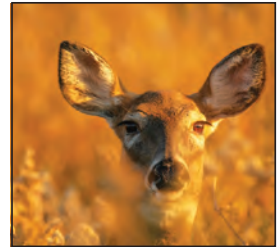

Hunters who harvest a deer and would like to donate the venison can bring it to one of 34 certified deer processing shops in Ohio. Each donated deer is provided to a verified charitable organization that offers food assistance. One harvested deer yields approximately 50 pounds of venison, which equates to about 200 meals. Find the complete list of processors accepting donations of harvested deer at feedingthehungry.org. Hunters who donate their harvested deer are not required to pay for the processing of the venison.

Donate a harvested deer this hunting season to one of 34 certified processing shops through Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry.

This program encourages the harvest of deer for the purpose of wildlife management in Ohio, as well as provides for the wise and charitable use of the wildlife resource for direct public benefit. During the 2023-24 deer hunting season, FHFH coordinated the processing of 1,157 deer donated by Ohio hunters. Seventy-nine charitable organizations then distributed the venison.

Ohio's deer archery hunting season is open until Sunday, Feb. 2, 2025. Statewide gun seasons are Monday, Dec. 2 until Sunday, Dec. 21-22. The muzzleloader season is from Saturday, Jan. 4 to Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2025. Hunting licenses and deer permits are available on the HuntFish OH app, at wildohio.gov, or at any license vendor.

Venison is a lean meat with high nutritional value. Wild Ohio Harvest provides a variety of delicious recipes for deer, turkey, fish, and small game. Check out the Wild Ohio Harvest Cookbook for ideas on cooking venison and other wild game.

The mission of the Division of Wildlife is to conserve and improve fish and wildlife resources and their habitats for sustainable use and appreciation by all. Visit wildohio.gov to find out more.

Fallece Silvia Pinal, primera actriz y diva del Cine de Oro mexicano

Por BERENICE BAUTISTA Associated Press

CIUDAD DE MÉXICO, Nov 28, 2024 (AP) — La primera actriz mexicana Silvia Pinal, diva del Cine de Oro y quien compartió créditos con Cantinflas, Tin Tan y Pedro Infante, y protagonizó la cinta de Luis Buñuel “Viridiana” que fue laureada en Cannes, falleció el jueves. Tenía 93 años.

La Asociación Nacional de Intérpretes y la secretaria de Cultura de México, Claudia Curiel de Icaza, lamentaron su fallecimiento en sus cuentas de X.

“Su legado como artista y su contribución a nuestra cultura son inolvidables. Descanse en paz”, escribió la secretaria.

Días antes, sus familiares informaron que estaba hospitalizada por afecciones de una infección en vías urinarias. En sus últimos años también padeció COVID-19, neumonía y llagas en su espalda. En 2020 debió someterse a una cirugía de cadera tras sufrir una caída.

Pinal tuvo una carrera de más seis décadas en las que apareció en más de 60 películas producidas en México, Argentina, España e incluso Estados Unidos. A partir de la década de 1960, comenzó su igualmente prolífica carrera televisiva, con programas como “Mujer casos de la vida real” y “Silvia y Enrique” y las telenovelas “El privilegio de amar” y “Soy tu dueña”.

A la par de su faceta como actriz, Pinal sobresalió como productora teatral, incursión en la política y fue líder de la Asociación Nacional de Actores entre 2010 y 2014.

“Lamentamos el fallecimiento de la primera actriz Silvia Pinal Hidalgo, cuyo talento cinematográfico y teatral es parte de la memoria cultural de México. Muchas generaciones de mexicanas y mexicanos crecimos admirándola. Nuestras sinceras condolencias a sus familiares y amigos”, escribió la presidenta Claudia Sheinbaum Pardo en su cuenta de X.

Estableció toda una dinastía de mujeres dedicadas al arte. Sus hijas Sylvia Pasquel y Alejandra Guzmán emprendieron exitosas carreras en el teatro y en la música, respectivamente. Asimismo, fue abuela de la cantante y actriz Stephanie Salas, de la modelo y empresaria Frida Sofía, y bisabuela de la modelo Michelle Salas (la hija primogénita de Luis Miguel). “Mamacita querida, aunque tu partida deja una gran tristeza en nuestras vidas, también nos dejas un legado de amor, fortaleza y creatividad artística que honramos. Siempre vivirás en los corazones de todos los que te amamos y admiramos”, escribió Pasquel, en su cuenta de Instagram tan darse a conocer el deceso.

En 2022 el Instituto Nacional de Bellas Artes y Literatura de México le realizó un homenaje con cine, teatro musical y un show digno de una gala de televisión.

“¡Ay mamacita!”, dijo Pinal, provocando risas del público cuando estaba en el escenario. “Me siento tan emocionada en este momento, me siento llena de cosas”.

Pinal bailó animada en su silla de ruedas cuando recibió un reconocimiento por su labor artística como egresada distinguida de la Escuela Nacional de Arte Teatral. Durante la gala estuvo acompañada por sus hijas Sylvia, Alejandra, su nieta Stephanie y su bisnieta Michelle, entre otros familiares y amigos como las actrices Diana Bracho, María Rojo, Angélica Aragón, Fela Domínguez y Bianca Marroquín.

“Quiero agradecerte, madre”, dijo Guzmán en el homenaje. “Todas las cosas que nos has demostrado que cualquier mujer puede hacer, porque tú has hecho más que eso, has logrado tus sueños ... Gracias por darnos talento, darnos tu sangre, darnos tu casta y darnos esa sonrisa siempre”.

Pinal nació en Guaymas, en el norteño estado mexicano de Sonora, el 12 de septiembre de 1931. Su familia se mudó a la Ciudad de México cuando ella todavía era pequeña. Comenzó su carrera como actriz a muy temprana edad en el teatro y la radio. A los 17 años obtuvo su primer papel en la película “Bamba” (1948) de Miguel Contreras Torres.

Su voz ronca y su atractivo físico la colocaron rápidamente como una estrella a pesar de su corta edad. Al año siguiente ya estaba actuando con Cantinflas en “Puerta, joven” y con Tin Tan en “El rey del barrio”.

En esos primeros años también compartió créditos con Marga López, en “Azahares para tu boda” de Julián Soler, y con Pedro Infante en “La mujer que yo perdí”, de Roberto Rodríguez.

El amor tampoco tardó en llegar a su vida. Se casó a los 17 años con el productor Rafael Banquells, con quien tuvo un año más tarde a Sylvia. Pero el matrimonio no duró mucho; se divorciaron en 1952, cuando Pinal obtuvo su primer premio Ariel (el equivalente mexicano del Oscar) a la mejor coactuación por “Un rincón cerca del cielo”, en la que volvió a coincidir con Infante.

Su papel en “Un extraño en la escalera” (1954) al lado de Arturo de Córdova la convirtió en una de las favoritas del público en la década de 1950, cuando recibió dos Ariel más por su trabajo en “Locura pasional” (1955) y “La dulce enemiga” (1956).

Con el director argentino Tulio Demicheli su carrera dio un giro aún más sensual y se consagró como mujer fatal, con títulos como “Préstame tu cuerpo”, “Una golfa” y “Desnúdate Lucrecia”, todas estrenadas en 1958. Tan exitosa fue su colaboración, que Pinal y Demicheli decidieron mudarse a España para ampliar sus carreras. Fue así como la actriz filmó “Adiós, Mimí Pompón” y “Maribel y la extraña familia” en la península Ibérica.

En 1961 contrajo matrimonio con el empresario Gustavo Alatríste, con quien tuvo a su segunda hija, Viridiana, antes de divorciarse en 1967. Alatríste también produjo, junto a Juan Antonio Bardem, el filme clave de Buñuel: “Viridiana”.

La película marcaba el regreso del director a su natal España. Buñuel se mudó de su país en 1937 y se nacionalizó mexicano en los años posteriores a la guerra civil. A pesar de que el director obtuvo autorización para filmar en territorio español, la censura franquista hizo que modificara el final de la cinta.

Es considerada una de las mejores películas del cine español por años fue la única de ese país en conseguir la Palma de Oro en el Festival de Cine de Cannes. Pero en su momento, una reseña negativa de El Vaticano llevó a que “Viridiana”, que retrata a una novicia (Pinal) cuyo tío (Fernando Rey) se siente atraído a ella e intenta poseerla después de doparla, se prohibiera en España y a la persecución del director.

Pinal contaba que contrabandó la única copia de “Viridiana” que se logró rescatar, pues las autoridades franquistas habían ordenado su destrucción.

El trabajo de Pinal con Buñuel continuó en la película conceptual “El ángel exterminador” (1962) y la comedia “Simón del desierto” (1965). A lo largo de esa década, Pinal también realizó comedias, grabaciones musicales y diversos programas de televisión.

En 1967 contrajo terceras nupcias con Guzmán, un cantante y actor que era 12 años menor que ella. A pesar de la diferencia de edad, el matrimonio tuvo dos hijos, Enrique y Alejandra, quien se convertiría en una de las cantantes pop-rock más destacadas de México al paso de los años.

Con Guzmán filmó la popular “¿Cómo hay gente sinvergüenza?” (1971) de René Cardona Jr.

Años después, Pinal revelaría en su autobiografía “Esta soy yo” que la relación con Guzmán era abusiva, situación que también fue retratada en su serie biográfica “Silvia Pinal, frente a ti” de 2019, protagonizada por Itatí Cantoral y transmitida por el canal Las Estrellas de Televisa.

La vida de Pinal no estuvo exenta de otras desgracias. La muerte de su hija Viridiana a los 19 años en un accidente automovilístico la marcó en 1982. Se distanció por años de su hija mayor, Pasquel, porque ésta tuvo una relación sentimental con un hombre con el que Pinal también había estado involucrada. En el 2000, tuvo que salir de México para evitar la prisión mientras resolvía sus presuntos adeudos fiscales. Y en sus últimos años, Frida Sofía acusó a su abuelo y exesposo de Pinal, el actor y cantante Enrique Guzmán, de abusos sexuales que según ella ocurrieron cuando era una niña.

Frida Sofía acusó también a su madre de corrupción de menores y violencia familiar. Pinal inicialmente le ofreció ayuda a Frida Sofía, aunque después dijo en una entrevista que no quería involucrarse en el caso porque tenía sus dudas.

Seis años después de su divorcio de Guzmán, en 1982, Pinal se casó por cuarta ocasión con el entonces gobernador del estado de Tlaxcala, Tulio Hernández, con quien permaneció hasta 1987. La actriz se mudó a la capital del estado con sus hijos en 1982, y el 25 de octubre de ese año su hija Viridiana pereció en ese accidente fatal.

Tras la difícil etapa de duelo, Pinal tuvo un año relevante en su carrera en 1985, cuando se convirtió en productora teatral con los teatros Silvia Pinal y Diego Rivera y comenzó la transmisión de su famoso programa televisivo “Mujer, casos de la vida real”, que duró más de 20 años al aire y se transmitió con éxito en Latinoamérica y Estados Unidos.

La siguiente década se vio marcada por su incursión en la política. Pinal fue diputada, senadora y asambleísta del Distrito Federal por el Partido Revolucionario Institucional. También fue por un tiempo secretaria general de la Asociación Nacional de Intérpretes.

Pero en el 2000 tuvo problemas con el fisco, que la acusaba de no haber pagado impuestos por la transmisión de “Mujer” durante años. Esto llevó a que la actriz saliera del país y viviera un tiempo en Estados Unidos mientras se resolvía su situación.

Los años siguientes apareció en otras telenovelas, entre ellas “Carita de ángel”, “Amarte es mi pecado” y “Una familia de diez”.

En 2006 fue condecorada con la orden de Isabel La Católica y dos años después recibió el Ariel de Oro por su trayectoria cinematográfica.

Le sobreviven sus hijas Sylvia y Alejandra, su hijo Enrique, sus nietas Stephanie y Frida Sofía, y su bisnieta Michelle.

UFW: Working for a safe and just food supply

Begun in the early 1960s by Cesar Chavez, Dolores Huerta, Larry Iliong, and other organizers, the United Farm Workers of America is the nation's first enduring and largest farm workers' union. The UFW continues its activism in major agricultural sectors, chiefly in California. UFW contract agreements protect thousands of vegetable, berry, winery, tomato, and dairy workers in California, Oregon, and Washington state. More than 75 percent of California's fresh mushroom industry is now under union contract. Many landmark recent UFW-sponsored laws and regulations protect all farm workers in California, especially at non-union ranches. They include the first state laws in the nation providing farm workers with overtime pay after eight hours a day in California, Washington state, and Oregon; the first comprehensive standards in the U.S. to prevent heat deaths and illnesses in California; and recent COVID19 protections for agricultural workers. The UFW is a leader in the national movement for immigration reform. It's most recent reform bill for immigrant field workers passed the U.S. House on a broad bipartisan vote last year. The union continues proactively championing legislative and regulatory reforms for farm workers covering issues such as overtime, heat safety, other worker protections, and pesticides.
